SPEAKER PROFILE · EN

Ainur Suranchina

Third-year doctoral researcher · University of Bristol

MSc in Education Management (Merit) · University of Bristol

Speaker introduction

Ainur Suranchina is an educator and researcher who has worked in education in Kazakhstan since 2009. She served as deputy institute director for academic affairs and as acting dean of a language faculty with five departments. In the Student Voice project, she researched student experiences and presented recommendations to the academic council.

Speaking topics

- How deans translate university decisions into everyday practice
- Student Voice. What happens after feedback is collected?
- From a school timetable to independent study at university

WhatsApp · +7 700 138 8813
ainur.suranchina@bristol.ac.uk